

UA Researchers To Attend National Science Meeting

University of Arizona scientists from several research fields will participate in the annual meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science Dec. 26 to 31 in Boston.

Attending will be Dr. Frank J. Low, Dr. Bartholomew Nagy, Dr. Joseph T. Bagnara, Carl O. Hodge, Dr. James E. McDonald and Dr. William K. Hartmann.

Nagy, of the UA Organic Geochemistry Laboratory, has participated in the study of lunar soil samples returned by Apollo 11.

McDonald, senior physicist of the Institute of Atmospheric Physics, is an outspoken critic of national investigations of Unidentified Flying Objects and will deliver papers on the subject.

Area Council Meet

University Heights Area Council will hold its general membership meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at 513 N. 6th Ave. It is open to the public.